Cleansers

What Influx Can Offer :

- ✓ Foaming Face Wash
- ✓ Cleanser Cream
- ✓ Pimple Control Face Wash
- ✓ Micellar Cleanser
- ✓ Scrubs & Exfoliations
- ✓ Facial Wipes
- ✓ Makeup Remover
- ✓ Waterless Face Cleanser

The term cleanser refers to a product that cleans or removes dirt or other substances. There are many types of cleansers that are produced with a specific objective or focus. A cleanser can be facial care product that can be used to remove make-up, dead skin cells, oil, dirt and other types of pollutants from the skin of the face. This helps to unclog pores and prevent skin conditions such as acne. A cleanser is the first step in a skin care regimen and can be used in addition of a toner and moisturizer, following cleansing. Sebum control ingredients with Pimple control ingredients like Salicylic and Glycolic acid can be used.

Cosmeceuticals

Cosmeceuticals are products that have both cosmetic and therapeutic (medical or drug-like) effects, and are intended to have a beneficial effect on skin health and beauty. Like cosmetics, they are applied topically as creams or lotions but contain active ingredients that have an effect on skin cell function. In some cases, their action is limited to the skin surface (such as exfoliants), while others can penetrate to deeper levels, either enhancing or limiting normal skin functions.

Make up / Foundation

What Influx Can Offer :

- ✓ BB Mousse
- ✓ Cream Foundation
- ✓ CC cream
- ✓ High lighters
- ✓ Primer

The difference between BB and CC creams is subtle--CC generally stands for "color correcting" and the products are meant to address issues like redness or sallowness (usually with light-diffusing particles), whereas BB creams are like lighter foundation with a few skin care benefits thrown in CC creams will work better for those with sallowness or age spots than BB creams. This is because BB creams focus more on prevention and maintenance, (while CC creams prime and conceal problem skin as well as colour correct areas that you are not happy with).

Hand & Feet
